Official Notice

Special Round of Fellowship Counselling (July 2026 Session)

Eligibility for Special Round Counselling:

1. Candidates who were not allotted any of their preferred choices in any of the three rounds + Mop up round of counselling.
2. Candidates who registered and appeared in the ICP Common Entrance Examination but remained unallotted.
3. Candidates fulfilling the minimum qualifying cutoff approved for the Special Round.
4. Candidates who are eligible as per the counselling guidelines and have not taken admission to any allotted fellowship seat.
5. Seat allotment will be based on merit, preferences, seat availability, and applicable counselling rules.
6. The decision of the Indian College of Pediatrics (ICP) regarding eligibility and seat allotment shall be final.

Candidates who are not eligible for this Special Round Counselling:

1. Candidates who were allotted the centres in any of the previous rounds of counselling but did not accept the allotted seat and not informed ICP within timeline shall not be eligible.
2. Candidates who were allotted a fellowship seat in any of the previous counselling rounds, accepted the seat by blocking it, but failed to report to the allotted centre and did not inform ICP within the prescribed timeline shall not be eligible.

Important Instructions

- The Special Round cutoff has been reduced from the 30th percentile to the 15th percentile, extending eligibility from Rank 544 to Rank 661 (117 additional candidates).
- Candidates allotted a seat must accept and report to the allotted centre. Those who accept (block) a seat but fail to report will be debarred from appearing in the next two ICP Common Entrance Examinations.
